NOTES

1. House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) means a building or part of a building that:
 - is occupied by more than one household and where more than one household shares or lacks an amenity, such as a bathroom, toilet or cooking facilities
 - is occupied by more than one household and which is a converted building, but not entirely self-contained flats (whether or not some amenities are shared or lacking)
 - is converted self-contained flats, but does not meet as a minimum standard the requirements of the 1991 Building Regulations and at least one third of the flats are occupied under short tenancies.
2. A Mandatory Licence for which this is an application relates only to HMO's that:
 - Have 5 or more people in more than one household, and
 - Either share amenities such as bathrooms, toilets and cooking facilities, or contain non self contained flats whether or not some amenities are shared or lacking.
3. A household is:
 - A family (including single people, couples and same sex couples) – husband, wife, child, step-child, foster-child, grandchild, parent, step-parent, foster-parent, grandparent, brother, half-brother, sister, half-sister, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, cousin.
 - Other relationships, such as fostering, carers and domestic staff.
4. Planning permission would normally be required:
 - when a property has been used as an HMO prior to the 6th April 2010 and is to be inhabited by more than 6 people, where more than one family are resident (change of use).
 - where before the 6th April 2010 a property was not previously an HMO, i.e. occupied by 3 or more people who are not all members of the same family and who share any kitchen, bathroom or toilet amenities.

It is recommended that you contact the Planning Department to seek advice on whether consent is needed. Should the necessary consents not be in place then this could result in enforcement proceedings under planning legislation.

5. Compliance with Amenity Standards as set out in Schedule 3 of the Licensing and Management of Houses in Multiple Occupation and Other Houses (Miscellaneous Provisions) (England) Regulations 2006 within 6 months will be a condition of the issue of the Licence (see page 19).
6. The LACORS guide; 'Housing – fire safety guidance on fire safety provisions for certain types of existing housing' is available at Fire Safety Guide  (PDF) or on request from your local authority. Where the Regulatory Reform (fire safety) Order 2005 also applies to a property, a fire risk assessment may be required by Gloucestershire Fire and Rescue.
7. It is accepted that landlords may not be able to control the behaviour of their tenants, however, reasonable and practicable steps would include:
 - Inclusion of a clause within Tenancy agreement in relation to suitable behaviour of tenants & visitors, stating that anti-social behaviour is grounds for possession.

- In the event of anti-social behaviour occurring the manager should contact the tenant and request that the behaviour should cease. It is advised that any verbal warning is also confirmed in writing.
 - Where anti-social behaviour persists the manager should end the tenancy and seek possession on the grounds of anti-social behaviour (assured short hold tenancies).
8. Compliance with the management requirements set out within The Management of House in Multiple Occupation Regulations 2006 within 6 months will be a condition of the issue of the Licence.
 9. Information on HMO licensing can be found on the Communities and Local Government website www.communities.gov.uk/housing/rentingandletting/privaterenting/housesmultiple/
 10. Compliance with the minimum bedroom sizes referred to in the Licensing of Houses in Multiple Occupation (Mandatory Conditions of Licences) (England) Regulations 2018 will be a condition of the issue of the Licence; please see www.legislation.gov.uk/uksi/2018/616/made?view=plain
 11. Local standards for HMOs (both licensable and non-licensable) will also be used to provide guidance for officers carrying out inspections. Where relevant these can be downloaded from the Council's website:
